RODNEY EWING

BIO

Rodney Ewing is a San Francisco based artist who received his Bachelor of Fine Arts from Louisiana State University and his Master of Fine Arts from West Virginia University. Ewing's drawings, installations, and mixed media works focus on his need to intersect body and place, memory and fact to re-examine human histories, cultural conditions, and events. His work has been in numerous group and solo exhibitions at, among others, Jack Fischer Gallery in San Francisco, the Berkeley Art Center, and the Drawing Center in New York City. In 2015 he was Artist-in-Residence at the de Young Museum. Untethered - Stories of the Fillmore District is his first show at Nancy Toomey Fine Art.
